His Majesty, the Emperor of Japan

Japanese people around the world celebrate the Emperor's Birthday on 23 February as Japan's National Day.

Japanese Imperial family has a very long history and His Majesty Emperor Naruhito is the 126th Emperor of Japan. His Majesty is the symbol of the state and the unity of the people, being much respected and adored by the people of Japan.

Message from Ambassador Masami KINEFUCHI

We have nurtured friendship and solidarity in the last 20 years. Based upon this strong foundation of mutual trust and respect, let's build a brighter future together in the next 20 years to come and beyond!

Japan has:

- Supported more than 450 projects and programs, more than half a billion U.S. Dollars.
- Invited about 2,000 people to Japan for long- and short-term training. (more than 150 students for obtaining bachelors, masters and PhD degrees)
